IV. Community Service

1. Extension activities

I traveled to and developed the new Costa Rica study abroad program

5 sentence narrative:

Teaching: I taught the large-enrollment FLS101 classes in the fall and then took a sabbatical in the spring, during which I started the ACTFL oral proficiency interview tester certification process and will become certified by November, 2011.

Research: I collected additional data for my large-enrollment research and started writing articles to be submitted to the ADFL Bulletin in May and Foreign Language Annals in September dealing with my research on the efficacy of large-enrollment Spanish courses. I also made a workshop presentation and a poster presentation on my reasearch, and plan to present at SCOLT next year.

Service: I continued service as DGP on the various department, college and university committees, and plan to continue the development of the Hispanic Studies PhD, in addition to participating in the seven-year review of our MA program, and the revisioning of the M licensure program.

Extension: I developed the new Costa Rica study abroad program and will lead the program starting Summer I, 2011.
