

PERU

Summer 2016

Spanish Language & Peruvian Culture

6 weeks in amazing Peru!! You will enjoy Spanish classes at the 300 & 400 level while experiencing the many wonderful things Peru has to offer, from world class cuisine, to a modern city, Lima, on the gorgeous coast of the Pacific Ocean, to sand boarding and dune buggy rides on the desert coast, and adventures in the Andes Mountains. There you will marvel at Machu Picchu, and see amazing views, towns, and people in the Andes Mountains, explore Cuzco, the ancient capital of the Incas, and do a community service project in an elementary school near Cuzco. You will take classes for one month in Lima with NC State professors, and you will immerse yourself by living there with Peruvian families.

Program Dates

May 13 - June 24, 2016

Cost

$5,050

Cost includes: non-refundable application charge, tuition, room/board, & two weeks of excursions to the Andes, Cuzco, & Machu Picchu.

Airfare and personal expenses are not included.

Courses

Prerequisite of FLS 202

FLS 395: Culture & Society of Modern Peru (3 Credits)

FLS 395/495: The Search for Ancient Peru (3 Credits)

Both courses offered fulfill Spanish major and minor requirements. One FLS 395 counts as one of the culture and literature requirements and the other FLS 395 counts as a 300-level elective. If requirement met, a FLS 395 can be FLS 495.

Apply Now

studyabroad.ncsu.edu

Rolling admissions through February 15

Scholarships: apply by November 15

STUDY ABROAD

make the world your classroom

The University reserves the right to alter the program format and/or costs in case of conditions beyond its control. See Study Abroad Office policies.

Contact

Dr. Kay Villa Garcia
Foreign Languages
& Literatures
kvgarcia@ncsu.edu

