

Burgundy & Paris, France

Summer Study Abroad

DATES:

June 14-29, 2009

COURSES:

FL 216 Art and Society in France.

Fulfills the CHASS Arts & Letters and University Visual and Performing Arts requirements.
(3 credits)

or

MLS 501: Seminar in Liberal Studies
(3 credits)

Both courses are taught in English and do not have a language requirement

CONTACT:

Faculty Director
Dr. Dudley M. Marchi
Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures
Email: dmm@ncsu.edu

NC STATE UNIVERSITY

STUDY ABROAD

choose your destination

315 First Year College
Commons

(919) 515-2087

study_abroad@ncsu.edu

Study and experience French culture, art, architecture, and cuisine in the City of Light and one of the most famous and beautiful regions of France.

ACTIVITIES:

- Week in Burgundy will include visits to the regional capital Dijon, Côte d'Or wine-producing region, Cistercian Abbey at Fontenay, Crusader Church at Vézelay, Musée Gorsline, Château de Bussy-Rabutin, Château d'Ancy-le-Franc, and Flavigny.
- Week in Paris will include guided visits to Notre-Dame, Musée de Cluny, Sainte-Chapelle, Louvre, Musée d'Orsay, Palais-Royal, Grands Boulevards, Conciergerie, and entertainment and shopping districts, with many other optional visits.

COST:

Estimated at $3000 includes:

- Tuition for 3 credits
- Accommodation, local transportation, breakfasts, and some group meals
- All excursions and group activities
- Health insurance

Note: Airfare, some meals, and personal expenses not included

APPLY:

Apply online at <http://studyabroad.ncsu.edu> by Friday, February 6, 2009. Scholarship information is also available online.

The University reserves the right to alter the program format and/or costs in case of conditions beyond its control. If the program is canceled or a student withdraws, a refund of program costs may not be available in all cases. Please refer to the Study Abroad Office Refund Policy for details.